

CONDUCTOR STRUCK BY TRAIN AND DIES LATER IN HOSPITAL

Herman Manson, Employee of Pennsylvania, Meets Sudden Death.

Herman Manson, a conductor on the Pennsylvania railroad, was struck by the engine of a northbound Southern train at Seventh and C streets southwest early today and so badly injured that he died later in the Emergency Hospital. Both legs and his right arm were broken, and he was cut about the head.

The accident happened at what is known as the Southern substation, where all local trains on that line stop for the convenience of commuters and others who do not wish to go through to Union Station. Manson went off duty shortly before midnight, and was waiting at the station for the Pennsylvania "annex," a train run exclusively for employees of the road to take them to their homes. This train is made up in the Potomac yards in Alexandria county and comes through Washington just behind Southern train No. 28.

Just as the train came through Manson fell or stepped from the platform directly in front of the engine. He was struck and hurled to the side of the track. Picked up in an unconscious condition, he was taken in an ambulance to the Emergency, where he died at 5:30 o'clock.

Manson was fifty years old and had been employed by the Pennsylvania railroad for many years. His home was at 702 Vander street, Wilmington.

Sisters Principals In A Double Wedding

A double wedding, with sisters as the brides, was performed this noon at 1409 V street northwest by the Rev. J. M. M. Gray, the ceremony, in one instance, bringing to a climax a romance dating to the childhood of the principals.

Miss Ivy M. Maytum and Herbert L. Knox and Miss Rosetta C. Maytum and Maurice J. Pierce comprise the couples who were wedded. Mr. Knox is the head of the Personal Help Publishing Company, of Des Moines, Iowa, the former home of the brides, while Mr. Pierce is employed in the Treasury Department. Miss Ivy M. Maytum has been employed in the Department of Agriculture and her sister in the Land Office for more than a year.

The wedding was private, only a few friends witnessing the ceremony.

Original Poem Read.

"The Titanic's Last Brave" is the name of an original poem recited, with others, by Thomas W. Calver before the Short Story Club, which met Thursday night at the W. C. T. U. parlors. The program, comprising songs, recitations, and readings, was given by Mrs. Appleton P. Clark, Thomas W. Calver, Gloria Louise Corey, Mrs. J. M. Wolcott, Mrs. W. K. Houghton, H. P. Holden, and F. M. Currie. The program was in charge of Mrs. M. M. Metcalf. Mrs. W. E. Houghton will have charge of the next program.

Denied a New Trial.

A motion for a new trial for Robert H. Partridge, who was recently convicted in Criminal Court, No. 1, on a charge of false pretenses in connection with the investment of $2,000 in cash and $5,000 in notes in the National Lumber Company by the Rev. Eugene A. Hannan, has been denied by Justice Anderson, and an appeal has been noted. Pending an appeal Partridge is at liberty on bond.

SUFFRAGETTE TALKS TO ALEXANDRIANS

Miss Mary Johnson Tells Trade Council Time Has Come When Labor Should Make a Stand of Its Own In Politics.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU. ALEXANDRIA, VA. APRIL 27.

The Alexandria Trades Council was addressed by Miss Mary Johnson, of Richmond, the well-known novelist and equal rights advocate. Miss Johnson spoke last night on matters pertinent to labor. Among other things, she demanded that the prison contract system be abolished, as it was a menace to labor.

"The time has come," she said, "when labor should make a stand of its own in politics. Like the women of the country, it has allowed itself to be veiled, but it must now fight for its principles. Organized labor is now facing a crisis in this country, and its position now will determine its future." She also took opportunity to plead for suffrage for women.

A short address was also made by Miss Clarke, of Richmond, who accompanied Miss Johnson. Congressman Lewis of Maryland, who was expected to deliver an address, sent word at the last moment that he would be unable to appear. The meeting was opened with a prayer by Rev. W. P. Watson, of the First Baptist Church, and during the course of the evening several musical selections were furnished by the Ideal Musical Club. Former State Senator Lewis H. Machen presided and introduced Miss Johnson.

William Darley, a well-known resident of Alexandria, died suddenly at his home, 603 North Columbus street, late last night. He was about sixty years of age, and for the past twenty-six years has been an employee of W. A. Smoot & Co., occupying the position of foreman of their shops. He is survived by a wife. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

The Odd Fellows of this city will tomorrow observe the thirty-third anniversary of their existence. The three lodges of this district, comprising Sarepta, Potomac, and Falls Church lodges, will march in a body to the Second Presbyterian Church, where a sermon will be preached by Rev. John Lee Allison, the pastor, who is a member of Potomac Lodge.

A special musical program has also been prepared, and will be given under the direction of George B. Kennedy.

Refusing to pay alimony as directed by the court, John T. Harrison, a baker, is being held to serve ten days in jail, by Judge Barley, in corporation court yesterday afternoon. A few hours later Harrison thought better of the situation, paying the amount, $100, and obtaining his release.

Fire entirely destroyed the frame house belonging to David H. Taylor, located on Gibson street between Royal and Pitt, early this morning. The blaze was a spectacular one, and attracted a large crowd. The house was unoccupied.

Frightened at an electric train, the horse belonging to C. W. Howell, drawing a runaway, dashed down Royal street yesterday afternoon, finally colliding with a tree. The vehicle was badly damaged, while the horse received minor injuries.

A special meeting of the Young Men's Sodality League will be held tomorrow afternoon for the transaction of important business.

The minstrel show given by the Old Dominion Boat Club last night was highly successful. The first part was furnished by the Tech High School players of Washington, and the latter part by the club members, who entertained with a mock session of city council.

Funeral services for Harvey W. Mayfield will be held from the house, 1129 Prince street, at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, the Rev. W. J. Morton officiating.

Cazenova Gardner Lee, a former resident of Seminary Hill, who died in Washington, will be buried from Christ Church at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon, the services being conducted by the Rev. W. J. Morton.

The will of Hubert Snowden was admitted to probate in the circuit court yesterday. His wife, Edith Ashby Snowden, qualified as executrix.

Experience Cost the Young Ensign $109.86

His first experience as a quartermaster cost Ensign William A. Glassford, U. S. N., $109.86.

Ensign Glassford was quartermaster of the torpedo boat destroyer Davis in the last quarter of 1909 and the first quarter of 1910. During that time of office and men of that vessel had a fine mess. When the accounts of the quartermaster were audited, however, the auditor refused to allow expenditures amounting to $109.86, because, he said, they were not authorized. The provider purchased with this money was far above the fixed standard.

Ensign Glassford made the $109.86 good, and then appealed to the Comptroller of the Treasury for relief. The Comptroller, in a decision made public today, upheld the auditor.

Women to Conduct.

The women of Shiloh Baptist Church will have charge of the services there tomorrow. A special effort will be made to raise funds to lift the debt on the church building. Last Sunday the men of the congregation had charge of the services and raised several hundred dollars.

Gracie to Speak.

Col. Archibald Gracie, whose statement of his experience on the Titanic was one of the most dramatic that the disaster afforded, will deliver an address at his parish church, St. Thomas, near Dupont circle, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, on the subject, "A Powerful Illustration of the Efficacy of Prayer."

MME. ANNA FRERY SCORES A SUCCESS IN PUCCINI OPERA

"La Tosca" Sung In Creditable Manner By Aborn Company.

Puccini's "La Tosca," given at the National Theater last night, is a musical drama which makes great demands upon the vocal and interpretative powers of the principals. Mme. Anna Frery, as Tosca, gave a performance which demonstrated not only her ability as an actress, but which also showed her to be the possessor of a well controlled, full, soprano voice, well suited to this highly emotional role.

The part of Mario was well sung by Filade Singera, who, while lacking in dramatic ability, handled the tenor score in a creditable manner.

The remainder of the cast was the same as on Thursday. Miss Kimes and Mr. Schmitt will sing at today's matinee, and Mr. Singera and Miss Frery at the evening performance.

Bank Employee Dead After Long Illness

After an illness of five years from heart trouble, John R. Young, who for many years held an important place in the Riggs National Bank, died at his home, 1340 Thirty-first street, yesterday. He was fifty-five years old.

A native of Maryland, Mr. Young came to Washington when he was ten years old. He has lived here continuously ever since, and was well known in Georgetown. He was not married.

Funeral ceremonies will be held at his home Monday morning at eleven o'clock, the Rev. F. B. Howden, of the St. John's Episcopal Church, in Georgetown, officiating. Interment will be in Oak Hill Cemetery.

MAJOR WINSHIP WILL SEEK BUTT'S BODY

Friend Of President Taft's Lost Aid Will Go To Halifax.

When the funeral ship Mackay-Bennett arrives at Halifax with her gruesome cargo foremost among the seekers for bodies that may be identified will be Major Elton Winship, friend of Major Archibald Butt. Major Winship left Washington at midnight Thursday for Halifax.

This trip has a semi-official nature, it being the desire of President Taft that Major Winship or some other close friend of Major Butt proceed to Halifax to identify the President's lost aide if possible.

When the Carpathia reached New York with the survivors of the Titanic Major Winship made a trip, entirely on his own initiative, to see if he could not find some trace of his friend and companion.
